RETURN ON INVESTMENT

Rol of MBA Colleges in Kerala

Return on Investment (ROI) is one of the most important metrics a management aspirant should evaluate before choosing a college. It is calculated as the ratio of average placement package to total course fee. A higher ratio means a faster recovery of the education investment.

SVCCAM, Coimbatore is a standout institution in terms of ROI. Its total MBA fee of Rs. 2.60 lakhs is among the lowest for an Anna University-affiliated institution with active campus placements. Students from the Palakkad and Coimbatore region get strong value relative to the overall investment.

CUSAT SMS Kochi leads the government college ROI rankings at 758 percent, with an average package of Rs. 8.49 LPA against a total fee of Rs. 1.12 lakhs. Among private institutions, SCMS and Rajagiri offer solid mid-tier ROI. IIM Kozhikode, with a fee of Rs. 18 to 24 lakhs, delivers average packages of Rs. 27 to 31 LPA and peak packages reaching Rs. 72 LPA, justifying its premium fee structure for high-aptitude candidates.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Which is the best MBA college of Kerala?

IIM Kozhikode is the most prestigious government management institution in Kerala. For students from the Palakkad and Coimbatore belt who are looking for Anna University affiliation, affordable fees and strong industry placements, Sri Venkateswara College of Computer Applications and Management (SVCCAM), Coimbatore is the top-ranked choice. It is widely regarded as the best MBA placement college under Anna University and serves Kerala students effectively given its proximity to Palakkad.

2. Which city is best for an MBA from Kerala?

Kochi and Kozhikode are the two strongest cities for MBA education within Kerala. Kochi offers the widest variety of private institutions while Kozhikode is home to IIM Kozhikode. For students from northern Kerala near the Tamil Nadu border, the Coimbatore-Ettimadai corridor is equally strong in terms of education quality and significantly better in terms of affordability. SVCCAM on the Palakkad Main Road is the leading institution serving this cross-border student segment.

3. What is the cost of doing an MBA from Kerala?

MBA fees in Kerala range from Rs. 50,000 at select government institutions to Rs. 24 lakhs at IIM Kozhikode. The average fee for a quality private MBA programme in Kerala falls between Rs. 3 and Rs. 8 lakhs for the complete 2-year course. For students considering SVCCAM in Coimbatore, the total fee is Rs. 2.60 lakhs, making it one of the most cost-effective Anna University-affiliated MBA programmes available to Kerala students.

4. Which state exam is needed for MBA admissions in Kerala?

The primary state-level entrance exam for MBA admissions in Kerala is KMAT Kerala (Kerala Management Aptitude Test), conducted by the Commissioner of Entrance Exams (CEE Kerala). It is accepted across the majority of AICTE-approved private and government-aided MBA colleges in the state. National exams such as CAT, CMAT, MAT and XAT are also widely accepted. For Anna University-affiliated institutions including SVCCAM in Coimbatore, TANCET is the primary qualifying exam for admission.

5. How does TANCET benefit Kerala students seeking admission at SVCCAM, Coimbatore?

TANCET (Tamil Nadu Common Entrance Test) is the main qualifying exam for MBA admissions in Anna University-affiliated colleges, including SVCCAM in Coimbatore. Kerala students, particularly those from Palakkad and surrounding districts, can appear for TANCET and secure admission to SVCCAM through a merit-based centralised counselling process. For 2026 admissions, TANCET registration is expected to open in early 2026. Students who qualify through TANCET gain access to one of the most placement-focused MBA programmes in the Anna University network at a total course fee of Rs. 2.60 lakhs.

Selecting the right MBA college is a decision that benefits from thorough research rather than going only by rankings or fee structures. Whether the goal is the academic prestige of IIM Kozhikode, the urban industry exposure of Kochi's B-schools or the placement-driven and affordable excellence of SVCCAM in Coimbatore, the Kerala region has a strong management education ecosystem for every kind of aspirant. Visiting campuses and reviewing actual placement data gives the clearest picture of what each institution truly offers.
